

Get Creative This Summer

We want to make sure you're feeling excited and ready to start with us at Beckfoot. So we've come up with 'Get Creative This Summer' – 20 awesome activities for you to choose from before you start with us in September 2021. Aim to complete 4 'Get Creative' activities to EITHER photograph or bring into school with you during your weekly 'Get Creative' Tutor Showcase over the first half term. Better yet, get your parent/carer to email us your photos of your completed challenges to

Coat of Arms Design a shield that would be a symbol for you and your family. Include words and pictures to represent you and your loved ones.	Self-portrait Draw yourself using pencil, crayon, paint, make a collage, or even go digital! Tell us what your favourite things are about yourself underneath.	Music to my ears Listen to your favourite piece of music. Explain why it is your favourite and describe how it makes you feel when you listen to it.	New learning Write about the subjects you are most looking forward to learning at Beckfoot and tell us why you're excited about learning them.
A Kennings creation Who am I... Ice skidder Swift swimmer Fish devourer Egg cuddler Warm huddler Storm withstander Iceberg waddler Belly slider Now make a Kennings poem about you! Aim for 6 – 10 lines that reveal something about you.	Tour guide On our Transition webpage, click on 'Take a Tour.' Create a short quiz for another new Year 7 student to help them get to know their way around the school!	Who's who? On our Transition webpage, click on 'Year 7 Team'. Make a mind-map about one of your Beckfoot team and include questions you want to ask them.	Memory-maker On our Transition webpage, click on 'Make A Memory'. Get your parent/carer to email us a photo of you making one of our suggested memory challenges.
	Natural masterpiece Create a piece of art using anything natural from your garden or local area. You might use leaves, flowers, pebbles, or even a pine cone!	The best of you Ask family and friends about your best qualities, their funniest memory of you, and your talents! Write their answers as a leaflet all about the best of you.	Curious questions Do you have a burning question about Beckfoot that you need answering? No question is too big, small, hard or silly to us! Get your parent/carer to email us with your question and we will reply.
In my wardrobe Make a list of everything you need to wear when you start at Beckfoot. Make a second list of anything you can't wear. Then draw a picture of the uniform hung up in the wardrobe and laid out in your room as it would be the night before!	Inspire us Who inspires you to be the best you can be? It might be someone famous or someone close to you. Tell us about them. Make a profile which includes their photo, five interesting facts about them, and why they inspire you.	Hive of Happiness Create a hive of happiness using a honeycomb pattern. Fill every hexagonal cell with words and pictures of anything and everything that makes you feel happy. You might include names of people or places, adjectives and symbols.	I Am... Poem I am (two special qualities/adjectives) I wonder (something you are curious about) I want (a desire you have) I worry (something that bothers you) I am (repeat the first line) I understand (something you know is true) I say (something you believe in) I dream (something you hope for) I am (repeat the first line)
Cultural capital On our Transition webpage, click on 'Cultural Clicks' and take in something different! Watch a dance performance, sing-a-long to a musical, stroll through one of the UK's famous sights or visit to a zoo. Write a review about your cultural experience and be sure to include your star rating out of 5!	Enjoy-Learn-Succeed This is our school motto. Think about three adjectives, verbs or nouns that describe you best and what kind of student you are. Turn these words into a piece of innovative artwork or a logo.	Globe trotter Where would you most like to go in the world? Choose a place and create a fact file about it, including the flag and interesting information. Don't forget to explain why you picked this place.	T'was the night before Beckfoot... Make a checklist of things to do and get ready the night before your start with us.
	If I were prime minister for the day... What would you change? What new laws would you bring? How might life be different?

Keep your mind active, get creative and have fun!
