Dear All,

Please find attached our latest Anti-bullying Policy and Procedures Flowchart. It represents a significant amount of work following valuable feedback from staff, students and families in recent months. It also represents a strong, determined collective approach to tackling the issue of bullying in school and is part of a wider, co-ordinated strategy to ensure bullying is something our students do not have to endure at Beckfoot.

In addition to this policy, we have also established an email address STOP@beckfoot.org for students, staff and families to use to inform us of any concerns around bullying in school. In support of this we have run assemblies since September covering the issue directly but also further issues such as child-on-child abuse.

We are thrilled that so many of our community have contributed to this work and we remain determined to ensure that students can enjoy school, learn brilliantly and be the greatest, most successful version of themselves possible.
