

Beckfoot Sixth Form – FAQs

How can I apply to Beckfoot Sixth Form?

The application for Beckfoot Sixth Form is online, and can be accessed here – Apply to Beckfoot Sixth Form

Can I make a change to my application after it has been submitted?

Yes, you can. Get in touch with us at 6thformteam@beckfoot.org and we will can make the change for you.

What is the timeline for applications?

Applications open on the 14th of November and the deadline is on the 20th of December. Applications made after the deadline will not be considered, but will be placed on a waiting list.

Where can I find out more about the subjects you offer?

You can find the information on our website at Beckfoot School - Courses and Curriculum.

How many subjects should I choose?

Students at Beckfoot study three A-Levels, unless they choose to study Further Maths and Maths, in which case they study four. Only in exceptional circumstances do we permit students to complete four A-Levels. Get in touch with the Head of Sixth Form for more information.

Can I change my subject options after submitting the application?

We appreciate that you may change your mind about what to study after you submit your application, so this isn't a problem. Just get in touch with us and we will make the changes where possible i.e. if your combination of subjects fits with the timetable.

When are the interviews and do I have to attend?

Applicants will be invited to interview in March 2025 by email. We only offer provisional places to students who attend interview, so it is important that you make yourself available.

When are the taster days?

Taster days for current Beckfoot students run on Monday the 30th of June to Tuesday the 1st of July 2024. We will have a taster day for new prospective students on Thursday the 3rd of July.

Who can I speak to about my application?

You can contact the Sixth Form team at 6thformteam@beckfoot.org and one of us will get back to you as soon as we can.
